

Dear Parents, Friends and Guardians

Welcome Back to Term 2

Welcome back to everyone for the term. This one is 11 weeks long so it will be a great test for us all – children, parents and staff. We have a few short weeks and two long weekends thrown in early (Weeks 3 & 4) so our resilience will be fully tested by the end of June. We have a number of new families who have joined us this term and just at the end of last term and we warmly welcome these families and children to our community. It's great to see the children back and so full of beans for the start of the term. I hope that you all had some exciting family time during our break and I look forward to seeing the excited faces of the children again over the term.

Year 5 Camp – Lake Ainsworth, Lennox Heads

This morning our Year 5 classes and their teachers headed off to Lake Ainsworth Outdoor Education Camp, just north of Lennox Heads in Northern New South Wales, for their annual three day camp. This camp is one of the best I've been to and our children have really enjoyed their time there over the last 10 and more years. Parts of the camp have just recently been refurbished and the activities and staff there are second to none. Our best wishes travel with these children and our staff – Leanne Crowe, Trish Taylor, Chris Britton, Deanne Krueger, Kathy Frost, Deb Cronin and John Jensen. Here's hoping for fine weather for the next three days.

ANZAC Day – Monday, 25 April

Our school has once again been invited to join in with the parade and Remembrance Ceremony to commemorate this year's ANZAC Day. We will join with our College and the other schools from this district on the Monday morning. All families are welcome to join with our school contingent. If your children would like to parade with our group I would ask that full school dress uniform is worn, including our dress shoes and hat. We always gather at the top end of James St and process down James St and on to the Highway and back into the park with the Cenotaph. Parents are welcome to parade with us at the rear of our school group. Full times and other details will be printed next week.

Parent Teacher Interviews

I would like to thank both our parents and teachers for entering into our early year Parent Teacher Interviews with such enthusiasm. It was great to see the energy being put into supporting our children and focusing on ways that they can be brought on by both teachers and parents. This partnership is the key to success for the children. Like any partnership it can be bumpy at times, but we need to work through these things and keep the progress of the child as our core focus. If there is a need for continuing meetings or semi-regular catch-ups then please feel free to organise these with your class teacher. The better the communication between both parties, the better it is for your child. Once again thank you to everyone for entering so eagerly into these important meetings.

Art Show 2016 Committee Meeting – Tuesday, 19 April

The next Art Show committee meeting is being held in the primary school staff room at 6.00pm on the above date. Things are starting to progress quiet well now and invites/ expressions of interest have been sent out to many of our regional artists. If you would like to put some pieces into the show or you know someone who may be interested then please follow the link here for further details <https://www.trybooking.com/KWHY>. Our meeting should be finished by 7.00pm and all are welcome.

Marymount Primary School Cross Country Carnival 2016

At our school every child has the ability to participate in our annual Cross Country Carnival. This year it will take place on Thursday, 28 April, starting at 9.00am. We will be utilising the College ovals as well as parts of ours for the older children and we should be finished by 10.45am. The full maps and distances as well as approximate starting times will be listed next week. Our parents are most welcome to come along and cheer on the children. It's a good fun morning and your presence will help to make it even more so.

Inter-School Sports Starts

This Friday sees the start of the inter-school sports competition for our school sports area – called Oceania. This area encompasses a number of schools in the southern region of the Gold Coast - Catholic, Independent and State schools. With our Year 5s away this week we won't be fully engaged but our Year 6 children will be competing in Soccer (Boys and Girls), OzTag and Netball (girls) and Rugby League and Aussie rules (Boys). We will, as usual, endeavour to have the draw on our school website by Thursday evening or earlier if possible. Please be aware though that these draws can (and often do) change. We will also look to let parents know via this avenue if the sports will be cancelled due to weather and the wet conditions of the venues. Often these calls are out of our hands as many of the venues we use are council owned and therefore under their control for closures.

Curriculum News

If you are a "book nut" like myself, reading is a highly addictive pastime!

Of course, reading is the foundation skill that underpins all of our academic pursuits. This of course can be tough, if you are a parent with a child without an enthusiasm for reading there may be a variety of reasons this may be the case. As both a parent and teacher, I believe the keys are: consistency, positivity, engagement and a bucket load of patience.

Finding text that your child truly connects with (no matter how bizarre!) is crucial. Trust me, I truly didn't want to read "The Star Wars Lego Manual" last year, but I did because it was a book that my son couldn't get enough of!

If you are into books and you are encouraging your child to enjoy this wonderful pastime, email me your tips! Prep to Year Six students can write a review on their current book and send it to me at dmckeannunan@bne.catholic.edu.au. I would love to see what your children are reading.

This week I have a review from Hannah in Year 6. Her book was found at the Gold Coast City Council Library – our big library at Elanora is particularly amazing!

"My Life and Other Stuff That Went Wrong".
Written by Tristan Banks and illustrated by Gus Gordon

If you're a fan of Andy Griffiths and Jeff Kinney, I would recommend you pick up a copy of the book titled, 'My life and other stuff that went wrong' by Tristan Banks.

The book contains a selection of short stories about the main character, Tom Weekly. One of my favourite stories was called 'Everest' and it was about Tom's 75 year old Nan and her goal to climb Mount Everest. She prepares for this by sticking her head into the freezer to acclimatise and taking on another granny in a race to end all races!

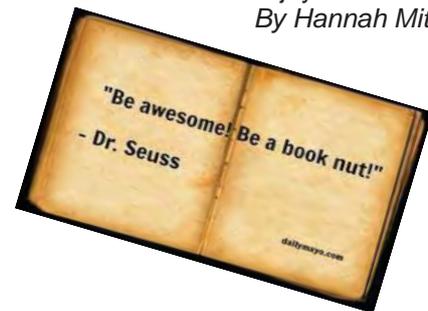

Students from Years 3 - 6 who like a good laugh and a book that is not too serious would enjoy the adventures of Tom Weekly".
By Hannah Mitchell 6A

Sounds like a laugh!

Until next time, happy reading!

REMINDER

ENROLMENT FOR PREPARATORY 2017

Many of our parents have already filled out an application form for their prospective Preppies, but there are still many not yet submitted. If you wish for your child to be part of our great school in Prep next year, please contact the Administration Office to complete and submit your Application for Enrolment form.

Children eligible for Preparatory in 2017 need to have been born between 1 July 2011 and 30 June 2012.

It would be appreciated if these enrolment forms were completed and returned by Friday 29 April, which is the closing date for our sibling enrolments.

Easter 2016

Welcome back to Term Two and I hope you had a relaxing break with your families. Today at assembly, 2R led the second part of the Easter story, acknowledging the Easter message of new life. The candle that was extinguished at Jesus' death, was relit today signifying His resurrection. Thank you to Mrs Hicks and 2R for leading this significant occasion.

Archbishop Mark Coleridge in his Easter message stated, "What is born at Easter is an infinite love and the hope that only such a love can bring. In a world that can be terrible, may Easter 2016 be a time of such beauty for all of us."
(Catholic Leader, March 27, 2016)

May these 50 days of the season of Easter bring love and peace to your families.

Project Compassion

Now Lent is over, could all Project Compassion boxes please be returned to Student Reception by the end of this week. Thank you to those families who have already returned these boxes. The final amount raised to support those less fortunate than us through Project Compassion will be published in next week's newsletter.

Sacramental Program

In the parish newsletter, Fr Ken has invited baptised children in Year 4 or older to receive the sacraments of Confirmation, First Holy Communion and Penance. Parents are asked to contact the Parish Office to leave their contact details with expressions of interest. The preparation process for these sacraments will begin in June, with registration forms being made available from 1 May 2016.

Parents with children in Year Three will be invited to enrol their children after August to receive later in the year the Sacrament of Confirmation in line with the new Archdiocesan Sacramental Policy. This policy can be viewed online at <http://liturgybrisbane.net.au/doctypes/christian-initiation-for-children/>

The number for the Parish Office to register your details is 55766466.

Refugee Day

On behalf of the families who enjoyed a wonderful day at the beach, I would like to thank you all for your kind donations. The weather was wonderful and more than 100 refugees came for the annual Infant Saviour St Vincent de Paul Society beach picnic. A special thank you to Mrs Lennon who coordinates this event on behalf of Marymount each year. Thanks also to the staff who sorted through the items donated or assisted on the day, and to John Stevens our groundsman who came to school twice on this Saturday to help with the supply of BBQ's, tables and sound system. The support of our wonderful Marymount community is greatly appreciated by the Infant Saviour St Vincent de Paul Conference and the refugees.

Anzac Day 2016

Next week we will observe ANZAC Day on Friday 22 April at 11:15 in our Multi-Purpose building. Year 6P will lead this important ceremony and parents are most welcome to join our school community as we pray and remember the sacrifices and service of all those who have served their country.

We will be also be joining with the College to be part of the local Burleigh Heads Parade on Monday 25 April. If you would like to be part of our school group, we ask that you meet us at the top end of James St Burleigh Heads at 9.00am. The students need to be in their full school uniform with their hats and a water bottle.

Have a wonderful week.

A Note from the Guidance Counsellor

"Anxiety is normal and part of everyday life". Michael Grose states that although Anxiety "can be debilitating" it can be managed. In the Insights article for this week, you will note that Michael encourages parents "to stay calm, think clearly and role model confidence" when their children become anxious. The article outlines some ways in which parents can assist their children to develop the valuable life skill of managing their anxiety.

I wish you well for the week ahead

WORDS Michael Grose

Easing children's anxiety

Anxiety is normal and part of everyday life. There's no better time than childhood for learning how to cope with anxiety.

For those with no personal experience of anxiety it can be hard to understand how debilitating it can be. "Come on, get on with it," seems so obvious. Of course, this response is nowhere near adequate.

Most kids experience some anxious moments or have fearful thoughts and feelings from time to time about certain events. These thoughts and feelings prompt them to proceed with caution.

But anxiety and fear can be paralyzing. Some kids simply can't stop their 'bad thoughts and feelings'. They can't silence the voice of fear that whispers to them continually.

Staying calm

Anxiety is a normal part of life and can be managed, but it takes time. It's also contagious so it's the job of parents to stay calm, think clearly and role model confidence when kids get anxious.

CALM is created through your words, voice and facial expression. When children become anxious, help them recognise what's happening. Some kids get angry, some become upset and others withdraw. Work out the pattern for your child and help them recognise when they are anxious.

ACCEPT your child's anxious feelings. Your child needs to trust that you are with them, and then they will be more willing to let you help them cope. It's hard sometimes to differentiate between what may be a bad case of negative thinking and true anxiety.

Is a child being negative when she doesn't want to join a new club because she thinks no one will like her, or is there something more going on? Try to confirm whether there is any validity in their fears. If not, point out diplomatically, that they may be catastrophising. If you feel there is reason for concern, help them to overcome their anxiety.

CHALLENGE the validity of your child's fears and anxiety, using logic and rational thinking. Don't allow kids to wallow in self-pity. Move their thoughts towards the future rather than allow them to mope around.

Making a plan

ENCOURAGE your child to overcome their anxiety through action. Vanessa came up with a creative solution to help Ruth, her seven-year-old daughter, overcome her reluctance to attend birthday parties without her. Initially Vanessa attended parties with her daughter so she wouldn't miss out, but Ruth was becoming too reliant on her, so it was time to make a change.

The next time Ruth was invited to a party, Vanessa put a plan into action. First, she set up a little birthday party scenario at home using dolls and teddies as friends, so her daughter would know what to expect. Vanessa explained that she would leave her at the party for a short time. Vanessa let her daughter know that she had no doubt that she'd cope.

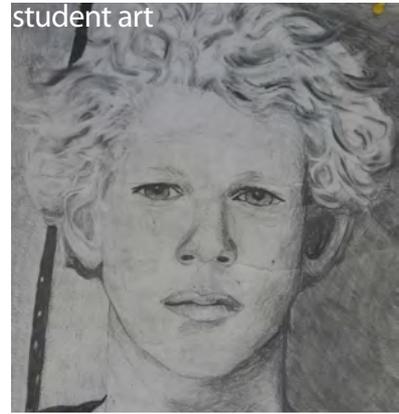

The little plan worked a treat. Vanessa arrived at the party an hour after the start to find Ruth involved in a game. She acknowledged her mum, but she didn't leave the game. Later, at home Vanessa made a fuss over her daughter for being brave. Ruth agreed that next time she was invited to a party she would go for the whole time without her mum.

Anxiety is normal and part of everyday life. However, it can be debilitating unless it's managed. Anxiety management takes time for kids to learn, but it's one of those valuable life skills that parents can teach their kids.
